WELCOME

Welcome aboard pegasus, the ultimate haven for relaxation, luxury and refined aestheticism. Built in 1995, by the world-renowned yard Feadship, she underwent a complete refurbishment and now rivals some of the newest yachts on the seas. With four spacious decks of exceptional elegance, abundant outdoor lounging areas and first-class pampering from the crew, pegasus endorses the guests' effortless delight in the beauty of the sea. Carefully designed down to the last detail, this superyacht has a unique sense of style that imbues the vessel with chic grandeur. Her 630 square meters of interior space allow both for privacy and intimacy on board. Innovative layouts allow for areas on board to be transformed instantly, creating a variety of new spaces for guests to wind down or gear up for a lively evening's entertainment. Engineered to the highest specifications, the yacht's performance has been enhanced with upgrades to the engines and operating systems. Thus equipped, pegasus transports its guests from bustling ports to forgotten bays for an unrivalled experience.

Please enjoy!

PEGASUS

Equipped with two top-of-the-range marine engines, pegasus leaves other yachts in her wake. A good turn of speed means the vessel is suitable for weekend breaks, as well as longer cruises. The yacht also boasts a host of smaller craft, with a stunning 29-foot tender stowed on board, two new Nauticas, jet skis and much more.

pegasus has an array of vast outer deck areas for lounging, dining and entertainment.

- Pool deck with bar
- Lounge deck with large table comfortably seating 22
- Aft Main deck with large dining table
- Beach club, just inches above the water.

The Main Salon is a pinnacle of design, with bespoke furniture complemented by lush, abrash rugs custom-made for pegasus. Designers have used only the finest of materials to furnish the boat, from polished stainless steel to shagreen and rich, black American walnut. Richard Aldridge designed and created the lighting system throughout, with stunning lighting schemes of backlight art, overhead and floor lighting, providing a synthesis for the perfect atmosphere and aesthetic visual appeal.

MAIN SALON

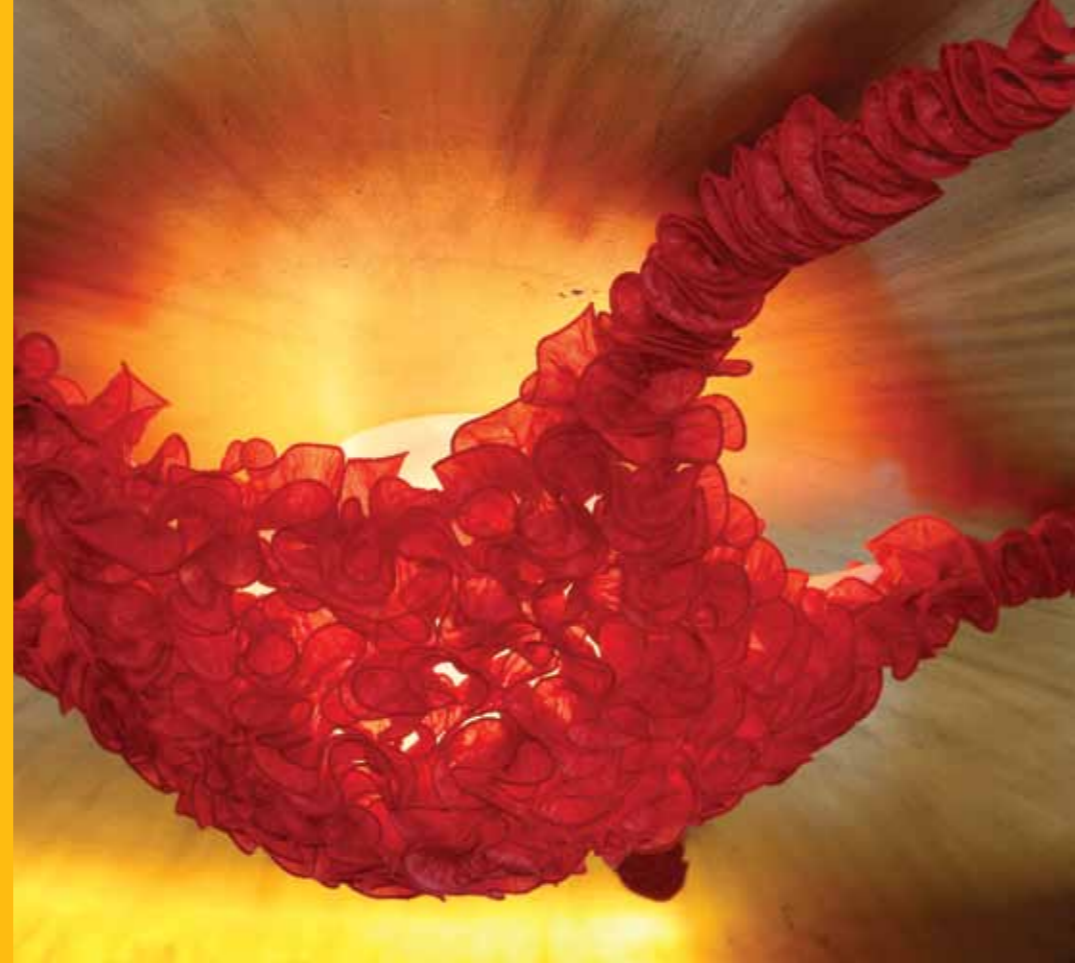

The exquisite Dining room is furnished with a large round table, dressed in shagreen and equipped with a rotating marble centerpiece, to pass around gourmet dishes prepared by the Chef. Accompany your meal with some of the world's finest wines, carefully chosen from a cellar, that would satisfy the most demanding of sommeliers. Custom-made china, crystal and silverware only add to this truly exclusive dining experience.

DINING

The Lido Lounge is the ideal place to wind down after a long day out in the sun. Beautiful, custom-made furniture provides plenty of corners to relax with a book or simply drink in the magnificent sea view. A baby grand piano graces the salon for a cultured evening's entertainment. The circular bar, with its French windows, opens out onto the Lounge Deck, while the skylight above the atrium bathes a spectacular four-meter sculpture with sunlight.

LIDO LOUNGE

The refined full-width Master Suite includes a spacious office area, children's room, and en-suite bathroom with Jacuzzi tub. A large plasma TV ascends and descends from a Chinese chest at the foot of the king sized bed. The latest in audio/visual technology, including an iPod docking station and a library of over 1500 movies are at your fingertips.

GUEST CABINS

SEAUURCHIN

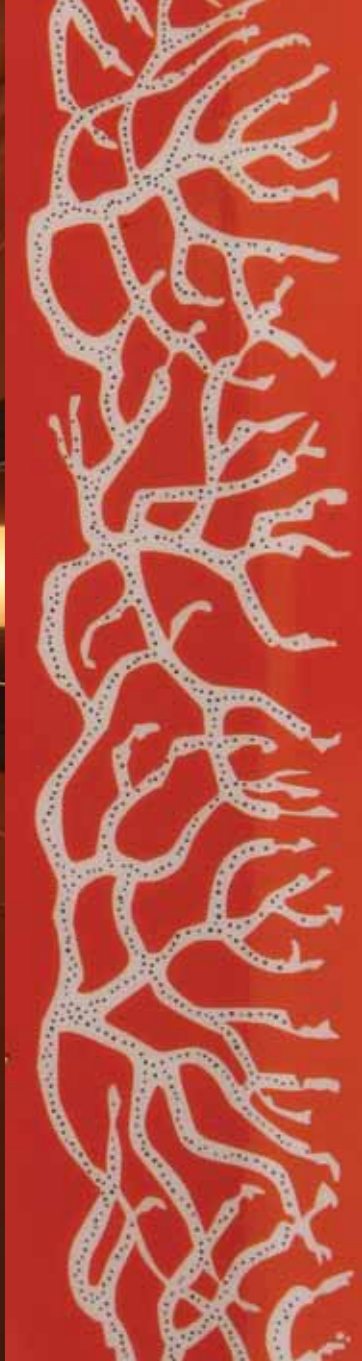

Located on the Lower Deck are two VIP and three Twin cabins, each named after a different sea creature. All of the guest cabins have been furnished with new silk carpets, wall fabrics, and leather ceilings, lending warmth and light to the interiors. As well as en-suite facilities, each cabin is equipped with a flat-screen television, state-of-the-art surround sound and iPod-ready music system.

PUFFER FISH

Desks, night tables and cabinets are dressed in shagreen leather, echoing themes that run throughout the vessel. Furniture has been specially designed to slot together neatly, to keep walkways clear and enhance the space. Sliding Japanese screens evoke the serenity and minimalism of the East.

SEAHORSE

The three Twin cabins are completely versatile. All are equipped with Pullman berths. The twin bed easily converts to a double bed and the sofa can, in turn convert to a single bed. Combined with the clever design of the sliding desk, each of these identical cabins can be tailor-made to every guest's personal needs.

DOLPHIN

All cabins on the Lower Deck have their own color coordination and individual style. They have been designed down to the smallest detail with doorknobs, cabinet handles and pulls, all carefully selected. Works of art adorn the walls and pictures are backlit, offering guests yet another lighting scheme to choose from.

SAVOR

Savor the best in life on board pegasus. Why not breakfast on the secluded aft Main Deck? On breezy mornings, wooden screens rise up from the sofa at the push of a button. To ensure the utmost privacy when in port, sideboards with nautical portholes can also be lowered into place. Looking for a party, head for the Lounge Deck where the extensive dining table can be transformed into a cocktail bar arrangement in an instant.

Add zest to your days with relaxation, a massage or a spa bath. Located on the fore Sun Deck is the spa area with a Jacuzzi and Hydrotherapy salt bath. The semicircular sofa is the perfect spot to be while cruising to your next destination. On the aft Sun Deck the glass bottom salt-water pool and cushioned sunbeds are located. One can seek refreshment at the bar or catch a bite on freshly grilled calamari from the ceramic barbecue. A full-length awning can be drawn to provide some welcome shade.

ENERGY

Maximize your energy supply by working out in the gym with the Power Plate, Kinesis machine or Trixter bike. For a day out in the sun, guests can choose between the many water toys from jet skis to kayaks, fishing and scuba gear, with the Beach Club pontoon providing easy access to the ocean. This area also serves as a secluded breakfast location or an idyllic spot for a champagne sunset for two, just inches away from the lapping water.

IMPRESSION

For absolute relaxation take a swing on the Ocean Hammock which is suspended out over the clear blue water on the port Main Deck passageway. Read a book or take a snooze while floating above the sea.

To help unwind before heading to bed, guests can watch a late night movie under the stars on the 55-inch outdoor plasma TV cleverly located on the Sun Deck.
